Stoke-on-Trent Training Venue

The Ashley Building
Staffordshire University,
Leek Road Campus,
Stoke-on-Trent,
Staffordshire,
ST4 2DF

Location

The venue in Staffordshire University is a modern purpose built conference and training suite called the Ashley Centre. It is ideally located close to the M6, just off the A50 and A34 for easy access North, South, East and West. It is just a few minutes drive from the M6 junctions 15 from the south or 16 from the North. It is approximately 30 minutes from the M1 junction 24 along the A50. It is close to Newcastle-under-Lyme, Stafford, Crewe, Nantwich, Manchester, Derby, Uttoxeter and Burton-upon-Trent. Parts of Wales and Shropshire, Cheshire and the West Midlands are all within easy reach.

The centre is a few minutes easy walk from the Railway station with express links to Manchester and airport, Birmingham, London (an hour and a half), Stafford, Derby and Crewe.

The room is large and airy with state of the art training equipment. There is a separate coffee lounge, and chill out area, internet access, lift, ample toilets and free parking. Students may use the University facilities. There is a park nearby but shopping for food is a further walk so lunch is normally provided.

N.B If you are delayed on the first day or need directions then please telephone 07990 521524.
